TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editorial ................................................. 2
Interview: Edith Fowke ................................ 4
Edith Fowke’s Publications .......................... 12
Ian Robb and the Canadian Folk Revival ........ 16
News ...................................................... 21
Retrospectives .......................................... 32

Book Review: For What Time I Am In
This World ........................................... 38

Marketplace ............................................. 42
Letters .................................................... 46
Index to Volume I ...................................... 48

Words and Music
Pat O’Brien ............................................. 14
The Old Rose and Crown ............................ 20
Cock o’ the North ..................................... 31
Derrière Chez Nous ................................... 37
You Lovers of Old Ireland ......................... 40
Davis Creek Waltz .................................... 45

Cover photo of Emerson Woodcock by Edith Fowke; Mr. Woodcock was the source of many of the songs in her collection, including “Pat O’Brien”, which is reprinted here.