BEATON INSTITUTE:
College of Cape Breton

The Beaton Institute comprises a unique collection of manuscripts, tapes, books, photographs, films and maps dealing with the history of Cape Breton. Founded by Sister Margaret of Scotland (Beaton) in the 1950's, the collection has grown to one of the major archives in the Maritimes.

The Institute is open to all researchers; our hours are 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday to Friday. We can easily extend our hours to accomodate those who are unable to come during these periods.

The Beaton Institute offers opportunities for research into the social, cultural, political, economic and religious background of the Island and is of benefit to teachers, students and all members of the community who are undertaking special projects dealing with Cape Breton culture and history.

We welcome donations of manuscripts, tapes or books for our collection, so that these might be available to the wider public. If you have any of these materials feel free to contact us - or drop by and see us at the College of Cape Breton on the Glace Bay Highway.
