Murray Schoolbraid – Ganges, British Columbia. Murray plays piano with the group Schiehallion, whose record “The Canadian West Coast Sound” is available through our Mail Order Service. He is an authority on Scottish traditional music and a prolific composer, with over 200 tunes to his credit. All of the ones I have seen are beautiful. He wrote the following two jigs while staying at the home of Kate Murphy and Brian Pickell in Toronto for the 1984 CFMS meeting.

John Leeder – Calgary, Alberta. John is past President of the Society and BULLETIN Editor. This lovely waltz with a definite western prairie feel was composed on the octave mandolin. John also plays five-string banjo and has performed in the Calgary area for many years, solo and with various groups.
