Vancouver Folk Music Festival

♪ Ta Da ♪ There's going to be a Folk Festival in Vancouver this summer! August 11, 12, 13. In Stanley Park. It's part of the Heritage Festival and will feature performers from across the continent.

We'd like to hear from local performers and craftspersons, especially instrument makers, who are interested in participating in the Festival. Performers should send tapes (reel to reel or cassette) and/or records. We need them as soon as possible. Craftspersons should send photos and descriptions of their work.

We'll be announcing details of the Festival over the coming months. Right now we want to hear from you.
